Discipline Triumphs Over Pleasure Among New Jersey's Crew.

(From a Staff Correspondent of The Tvibune) On board the U. S. S. New Jersey, Aug. 21 .- Every morning at 9:25 o'clock the sea rookles of the naval training cruise for civilians cock their hats at the proper 'varsity angle and go by campus which the uninitiated call Gardiner's Bay to the "dear old college," on the navy list as U. Varsity Spirit on Top.

This collegiate atmosphere introduced into a battle fleet is working havor with the old sea dog demeanor worn by most of the would-be seamen on their departure from home. The old 'varsity spirit got the better of navy discipline for a few moments yesterday. When the students had been marshalled on the quarter deck of the Louislana, preparatory to opening of school, it was discovered that the contingent from one of the ships had not tyet appeared.

Those who slung their hammocks fastest got the best seats when they returned, so virtue was rewarded any-

HEALTH RULES URGED TO SAVE CHILDREN

The following statement concerning the paralysis epidemic was issued yesterday by the bureau of public health education of the Health De-

DISEASE AND DEATH AL-WAYS ACCOMPANY DIRT AND CARELESSNESS.

At this time, with so much sickness in the city, every mother should be most careful to keep her home and children clean.

During the hot weather children should be bathed frequently. Too much clothing causes excessive perspiration and often leads to weakness. Give your children plenty of cool water to drink.

If you cannot afford to buy ice, ask the nurse at the nearest city milk station to give you a book of free ice

If your child is taken ill give it a dose of castor oil and send for the doctor.

If you cannot afford a doctor telephone the Department of Health-Franklin 6280.
